KING FLIES TO WEST POINT TO REVIEW CADETS

Albert Is First Monarch Before Whom Battalion Ever Paraded.

GETS COLUMBIA LL. D

Prince Sees Football Game and Queen Visits Her Official Jeweller.

King Albert flew to West Point yesterday morning and was back at the Waldorf for luncheon. For him the adets of the United States Military Academy paraded—their first review by a monarch. In the afternoon, abandoning the airplane in favor of a motor car, he went to Columbia Uniand received the degree of doctor of laws. The King upon his secand visit to New York is maintaining his record for speedy accomplishment.

Meanwhile Queen Elizabeth, after visiting a Fifth avenue jewelry firm, viewed a display of Belgian art at the serican Art Galleries and saw among other things the imperial banner that Late in the afternoon she was the guest of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt in the latter's home, 640 Fifth avenue. Prince Leopold went to West Point and stayed to see his first American football game, the cadets against

The King was accompanied to Co-lumbia by the Belgian Ambassador, Baron Emil de Cartier de Arcienne, with Bill Nye of the Secret Service on the front seat and motor cops clearing the way. Hoarse students who had just finished cheering Columbia's victory over Amherst had some noise left for Albert. Thousands of persons were massed about the Alma Mater statue. President Butler and Col. William Barciay Parsons, who commanded the Eleventh Engineers in the Cambrai drive, this pair escorted by Prof. H. B. Mitchell and Prof. John Erskine, met the King at the 116th street curb. They walked as far as the statue on a crimson carpet, and then up the steps and order, with the emblematic eagle worn

The ceremony took place in the cen-tre of the main reading room, from which study benches had been removed. and beneath a Belgian flag. The trustees and members of the faculty were pres-ent. Dr. William H. McCastline was marshal of the trustees and Prof. R. H. Schuyler and Prof. T. R. Powell mar-similed the university council and specially invited senior professors.

In conferring the degree of Doctor of Laws, magna cum laude, the univertwenty years ago. Speaking of Belgium in the war, he said that Germany had offered a tempting price. "But, thank God, it was not high enough to buy the of the conscience of the Beigian people.

"Amid the uproar of war, the crash of cannon and the appalling destruction of human life and human monuments your Majesty was serene, confident and single minded in devotion to the people of Belgium. Your Majesty was bent upon protecting not only their honor but their independence and their soil. but their independence and their soil of American women who are encourag-When a gracious word would help that word was forthcoming; when a graceful deed would assist that deed was done. of Commerce and by Thomas E. Kirby. Every day saw the bonds growing closer head of the American Art Association.

The Kaiser's banner which the Queen Taft, Mrs. P. Cooper Bryce, ing and extending freedom, with a sympathy as wide as the limits of human knowledge and human conduct, would not be true to itself did it not ask the privilege of association with the supreme service and sacrifice of Beigium and with your Majesty's person, as truly and fully representative of the spirit and resolve of that devoted people.

That's a flag Foch would have longed to recover," the Countess said.

Some one asked her if she spoke to the Kasier.

"I, a Belgian, would speak to him?" she exclaimed, indignantly. tions of free men, bent upon maintaining and extending freedom, with a symand its ruling house be written the name of this university may be associated with it, and to the further end that this university shall have its share in the pride and satisfaction with which the pride and satisfaction with which the house of Belgium and its King will forever be regarded by grateful generations to come."

King Accept Degree.

Ressler and decorated Mrs. Kessler with the Medal of Elizabeth in appreciation of her work with her husband for the relief of war sufferers, especially the blind.

After returning from Columbia the King called Detective Sergeants Bernard Ditsch and Sylvester Brierton into his apartment and decorated them with the Order of the Crown.

This morning, after attending a few timely national committees representing husiness, labor, recreation, Americanization, public health, social service, nursing, education, neighborhood organization, housing, statistics and church work, was marked by agreement that the application of the social unit plan of community would do much to ameliorate the critical condition of industrial unitary to country.

This morning, after attending a few twelve national committees representing husiness, labor, recreation, Americanization, public health, social service, nursing, education, medical organization, neighborhood organization, housing, statistics and church work, was marked by agreement that the application of the social unit plan of committees represents Bernard Ditsch and Sylvester Brierton into his apartment and decorated them with the Order of the Crown.

This morning, after attending a few properties of the social service, nursing, education, medical organization, neighborhood organization, housing, statistics and church work, was marked by agreement that the application of the social unit plan of community would do much to ameliorate the critical condition of industrial university and the critical condition of industrial university and the social service, nursing, containing the social service, nursing, education, medical organization, neighb To that end I ask that your Majesty accept membership in this university as Doctor of Laws, magna cum laude, together with these tokens, so that herenfter whenever the history of Belgium and its ruling house be written the name of this university may be associated with it, and to the further end that this university shall have its share in the Affer religious from Columbia the arm, replied:

The King, upon receiving the parch-ment from Dr. Butler and having the hood of the doctorate placed across his

"I feel deeply the sympathetic way n which you have received us here to-day. I express my sincere thanks to the president and the board of trustees of the University of Columbia for the very kind speech. I am highly gratified by the honor which has just been con-ferred upon me. Nothing could give me more pride them to receive the ferred upon me. Nothing could give me more pride than to receive the degree from Columbia, the largest and one of the oldest universities in the country. This exceptional centre of culture has taken a permanent part in the development of the American nation in both aspects of its splendid genius. May its prosperity continue to progress in the future for the greatest benefit of all the people."

On the way to the university King Albert traversed Fifth avenue and Central control of the King seeing the President informally.

Albert traversed Fifth avenue and Cendent informally.

tral Park and on the return rode down On his way to atreet, but the party went so fast that shipyards. Philadelphia, to christen the military figure in the leading car.

Although the King did not so the state of the launching he will continue.

Although the King did not retire until Although the King did not retire until A. M. yesterday he was up soon after 6 and by 8:30 o'clock was at the Columbia Yacht Club, at Eighty-sixth street and the Hudson River, ready to mount the seaplane which was to convey him to West Point. The machine and the pilot. Ensign Frank Lamb, were the same an when the visitor sailed over the city on October 4. Count d'Oultremont and Nye, the secret service mao, rode up the river with the King. Others of the party went on a special train.

went on a special train.

Palizade and highland displayed their brightest autumn garb for the delight of the travellers.

At his left when the King alighted on the parade ground stood Brig-Gen. Jouglas MacArthur, superintendent of the academy, and at the General's left Prince Leopold in the uniform of a Bergian private. Lieut-Gen. Baron Jacques of the Belgian army was be-Segian private. Lieut.-Gen. Baron Jacques of the Belgian army was be-and them. Surfeited as the King has been by scenes of military display his High Praise for Cadets. It is to me a great pleasure to meet "It is to me a great pleasure to meet you and visit this celebration school. Allow me to express my feeling of admiration for the numerous officers of this school who fought so gallantly in France and Belgium. They have taken a large share in the training of the spiendid troops who went to Europe to fight for freedom and a decided victory.

"I pay a tribute of deep respect to the memory of those who have fallen. May their example live among us all. In all the course of history the American army is the most striking example."

can army is the most striking example of a force always serving right and just causes. During this war, by personal experience, I was able to realize how thoroughly every officer and sol-dier was convinced of the ideal for which he fought. This feeling makes an

"I have heard European military authorities say that the officers trained at West Point were the best trained in the world. Such schools give a nation men of high education devoted to their civil and military duties. Every country needs them. Here is a splendid example. I wish you all successful careers and happiness."

King Albert made Gen. MacArthur a Commander of the Order of the Crown. Lieut.-Col. Robert M. Danford an Officer of the Crown, Capt. Charles Gerhardt a Chevaller of the Order of Leopold and First Lieut. Pitt F. Carl a Chevaller of the Order of the Crown.

The seaplane brought the party back to the Eighty-sixth street landing stage at 1:10 P. M. and returned to the Waiat 1:10 P. M. and returned to the Wal dorf, where the King was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Bel-gian Ambassador in the state apartment. At the King's right was Ellhu Root and at his left William G. Mc-Adoo. The others were Alton B. Par-ker, A. Barton Hepburn, Martin Vogel.

ker, A. Barton Hepburn, Martin Vogel.
Pierre Mail, Prince Reginald de Croy.
secretary of the Belgian Legation; Cornell Tarler, James A. Stillman, Justice Victor J. Dowling, Archbishop Patrick
J. Hayes, the Belgian Ambassador, Baron de Cartier, who was opposite the King at the oval table; Elbert H. Gary,
the Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, Louis
Livingston Searan, Count (Coultement) Livingston Senman, Count d'Oultre Max Leo Gerard, the King's secretary John D. Rockefeller, Jr., William D. Guth.ie and Herbert C. Hoover. The Order of the Crown was conferred upon

After returning from Columbia King received in turn directors of the New York Athletic Club, Mr. Hoover and New York Athletic Club, Mr. Hoover and others of the Belgian Relief Commis-sion and directors of the Order of the Cincinnati, Including Justice Francis Key Pendleton, Francis Burrall Hoff-man, Edward Wright Tapp, McDougali Hawkes, William Morris Austin, Major Ellhu C. Church, William Henry Addoms and Dr. William Sturgis Thomas. Justice Pendleton, addressing the King, offered him membership in the by Washington and his office which His Majesty accepted.

plush coat with a light gray fur and a dark toque, motored up the avenue in the morning with the Countess de Chimay and Col. Leon Osterreich, chief of the Belgian military mission. Pierre Cartier, head of the American branch of the Parisian firm of jewellers bearing his name, holding a warrant as official jewellers to the King and Queen of the store at Fifth avenue and Fiftysecond street and in one of the cus-tomers' rooms showed her some of the firm's possessions. It seemed that she Barnes, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Miss was especially fond of rubies, emeralds Flora Whitney, Brand Whitlock, Mrs. and pearls. Masses of pearls not yet John Sanford, Mrs. Walter E. Maynard, mounted, a suite of rubies and a large Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Mail and Miss Harfirm's possessions. It seemed that she ruby with a European history were ex-hibited. The Queen remained for about twenty minutes. sons gathered in the avenue and cheered

Galleries by Mrs. E. H. Harriman, Mrs. Linkerke, Miss Angelica Terry, Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Charles C. Countess Caraman Chimay, lady Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Charles C. Rumsey, Mrs. Felix Doubleday and Mrs. John Claffin, representing a committee

to the hearts of the people of Belgium. saw was exhibited by the Countess de Burrall Hoffman, Mrs. Alexander J. "Such heroic and devoted service by Lederke. The Countess said she was Hemphill, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, add to the significance or increase the importance of that service; but Columbia University, born of the again.

she exclaimed, indignantly.

After luncheon in the Waldorf the

At I o'clock the King will give a scheme. luncheon at the Waldorf, at 3 he will meet the Belgian delegation to the International Trade Conference, and at 3:30 will receive officers of the New York branch of the Commission for Rethe launching he will continue the jour-ney, arriving in Washington at 9 P. M.

than the average bottle of milk-that's why it is so

Briarcliff Table Water 402 Madison Avenue Phone 7070 Murray Hi'l

eyes were alight and exclamations of station by Vice-President and Mrs. Marpleasure escaped him when the West Shall, and escorted to the house set aside for their use.

At the end of the review he addressed

The King will address the Senate at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the House of Representatives half an hour later. The Queen will be conducted to the galleries for the formalities. During the afternoon the King will be decorated by Gen. John J. Pershing and Gen. Poyton C. Marsh, Chief of Staff, and in the evening the royal party will disa with the ning the royal party will dine with the Wednesday will be mostly taken up with an inspection tour of the Govern ment buildings, including the Bureau of Printing and Engraving and the Navy Yard. Late in the afternoon the King and Queen will motor to Mount Vernor In the evening they will be entertained at dinner by Secretary and Mrs. Lansing.

Thursday the King and Queen will give an informal luncheon which will be in the nature of official farewell to American shores with the diplomats of the various embassies attending. After that function the King will receive an honorary degree from George Washing-ton University, and the Queen will re-ceive a degree from Trinity College at the Catholic University. Immediately afterward they will go to the White House and that same evening after din-ner with the Belgium Ambassador they will leave Washington on the President. will leave Washington on the President's

MRS. C. VANDERBILT HOSTESS TO QUEEN

Reception With Music Fifth Avenue Home.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt gave a ception with music at her home, 640 Fifth avenue, for the Queen of the Belgians yesterday afternoon, her guests including mainly women. The American and Belgian flags were suspended in front of the house and in the various rooms the decorations were of various coms the decorations were of red roses and yellow chrysanthemums, whose colors are those of the Belgian flag. Mrs. Vanderbilt was assisted in receiving her guests by her daughter, Miss Grace Vanderbilt. The Queen was accompanied by the Baroness Etienne de Cartier de Marchienne, wife of the Geigian Ambassander to Washington and Cartier de Marchienne, wife of the Geigian Ambassander to Washington and Cartier de Marchienne. Ambassador to Washington, as well as by the ladies of her suite. She arrived at 4:30, at which hour all the guests

Shortly after the arrival of the Queen and after the formal presentations, there was a brief concert by Miss Mabel Garrison of the Metropolitan Opera and the Flonzaley Quartet. Miss Garrison sang two groups of songs while the quaret played 1 movement from the Beethoven Quarete, Opus 18, No. 6; composition of Smetana and British folk music set-ting to "By the Tarn" of Eugene Goosens and "Molly on the Shore." by Percy Grainger. The personnel of the quartet was Adolfo Betti, first violin; Alfred Pochon, second violin; Louis Ballly, viola, and Ivan d' Archambeau, sister of the hostess; Mrs. Ogden Goelet, Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Jr.; Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. William J. Schleffelin Lydig Hoyt, Mrs. T. Coleman du Pont, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylles, Mrs. Van Rensselaer Johnson, Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien, Miss Estelle O'Brien, Mrs. William Jay, Mrs. Arthur Iselin, Mrs. Ernest Iselin, Mrs. Roche, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Mrs. Otto H. Kahn, the Misses Kahn, Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff, Mrs. Ernesto G. Fabbri, Mrs. J. Cameron Clark, Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mrs. James Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. William James Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Whitehouse, Mrs. Courtlandt D.

Rodellec du Porzic, Miss Angelica Gerry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aldrich Mrs. Newbold LeRoy Edgar, Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, Countess Marcel waiting to the guest, Princess Fancigny Lucinge, Mr. and Mrs. W. De Lancey Rountze, Mrs. George B. Post, Mrs. C. B. Alexander, Mes. George F. Baker, Jr., Mrs. Edward M. Hoase Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Henry Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, Mrs. Henry Cleves, Mrs. F. W. Whitridge, Mrs. Cleves, Mrs. F. W. Whitridge, Mrs. Whitridge Greenough, Mrs. Arthur Cur-Henry Harriman and Mrs. Alvin W.

When the Queen left she was escarted to her motor by William F. Whilehouse, and accompanied by Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne.

SEE HOPE IN SOCIAL UNIT PLAN Advocates Believe It Will Ameliorate Industrial Unrest. CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—The close of a three day conference held here by mem-bers of twelve national committees rep-apartment and decorated them with the Order of the Crown.

This morning, after attending an 5 o'clock mass at the Church of St. Albert in West Forty-seventh street, King Albert will go to Oyster Bay and visit the grave of Theodore Roosevelt. Queen Elizabeth will go to the church two hours later and then to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Davison at Glen Cove to meet Red Cross workers.

At 1 o'clock the King will give a scheme.

See Robbery Plot in Pittsfield. Special Despatch to THE SUN.

PITTSFIELD, Masa, Oct. 25 .- What is believed to have been a plot to hold up and rob Mrs. Raymond T. Baker of Washington, who is at Holmwood, was revealed in the discovery last night of a wire strung across the road leading to her estate. Mrs. Baker did not make her usual automobile trip last alcohher usual automobile trip last night. Mrs. Baker's chauffeur, driving her car, ran into the wire. When he got out of the car to disentangle the wir he says he saw the figures of men hurrying from

LAST CALL PUBLIC SALE RAINCOATS made for the government all sizes, to be closed out MON.-TUES.-WED'Y.

AT $7.45

GOODYEAR Waterproof Company

QUEEN GETS GOLDEN WELCOME AT OPERA

Elizabeth's Fund for Medical Research Swelled by Many

TRIBUTES TO BELGIUM

U. S. Soldier Heroes in Audience Which Cheers Royal

added to Queen Elizabeth's fund for the establishment of an institute for medical research at Brussels as the result of an operatic and concert performance given in the Metropolitan Opera House last night in honor of the King and Queen of the Belgians. Otto H. Kahn, treasurer of the fund, decided not to make known at once the sum received from the sale of seats, boxes and standing room, as other contributions are pouring in. A suggestion of what the gift may amount to may be obtained from the fact that from the single source of boxes sold for the evening at $1,000 apiece to men and women who already owned them more than $20,000 was realized. King Albert, with the Queen and the Fuke of Brabant, entered the opera house a little before 9 o'clock and were ushered to the box of J. P. Morgan it the middle of the "golden horseshoe."
The King was escorted by Mr. Kahn, who were three decorations—the Italian Order of the Crown, the French Legion of Honor and the Spanish Medal of Carlos the Second. Edmund L. Bayles esocrted the Queen. Brand Whitlock, Ambassador to Belgium; Baron E. de Cartier de Marchienne and the Countess Chimay were in the royal party, In the boxes of J. B. Haggin and Mrs. Rosina Hoyt at the right and left of the royal box were Major Gen, William Wright. Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long, Mrs. Brand Whitlock, Haronesse de Marchienne, Lieut.-Col. Knola Lieut.-Gen. Baron Jacques and Count Guy

Over the King and Queen, Crius Julius all these tribes the bravest were the Belgtians," read the inscription in the Latin which every schoolboy knows if he knows no other. A canopy fringe of red velvet and golden Essels overhung the front of the three boxes. American roses blazed among autumn leaves, which swung in festoons along the whole row of boxes and across the stage, over which were the allied flags and the shield f Belgium.

Every seat was occupied before the honor guests arrived. There was no be-lated operagoing on this occasion. As the King entered his box, followed by the Queen, above whose forehead was a dia-mond tiara, and the heir apparent, the orchestra played "La Brabanconne," everybody rose and first the Queen and then King Albert bowed right and left during a long period of applause, ending with three cheers.

The King often used an opera glass terest was representative in more ways than one. Not only did it include a great number of distinguished persons and representatives of thirty groups of foreign born Americans in which are sky, the chap who got the message through that brought relief to the Lost Battalion in the Argonne, and Major Duncan C. Harris, who is entitled to wear the Distinguished Service Cross. The Twenty-seventh Division, the Amer ican Legion, the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus and Jewish Welface Board also had dele-gations. Many of the soldiers had

Royal Couple Applauded.

plauded all the numbers of a rich programme. Rosa Ponselle, Glovanni Mar-tino and Andres de Segurola sang Act 2 of "La Forza Del Destino." Mabel Garrison chose "Dixie" for an encore numher. There were piano solos by Sergel Rachmaninoff and violin solos by Jasha Heifetz, with Samuel Chotzinoff at the plane. The coronation scene from "Boris Godunoff" was sung by De Segurola and Pietro Audisio. The finale was the Bel-gian national anthem sung by Leon Rothler and the Metropolitan chorus and then "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by Margaret Romaine and the chorus. The conductors were Roberto Moranzani, Giulio Setti and Guiseppe Bamboschek.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt was chairman of a committee of women which arranged the entertainment, Mrs. David Rumsey, chairman of the committee for the inter-racial councils, of whose board Coleman du Pont is chairman, and which cooperated with Mrs. Vanderbilt's com-

Among Those at Opera.

The audience did credit to the occasion in every way in point of numbers and the distinguished persons. It compared favorably with other famous audiences at the Metropolitan. With Mrs. Ogden Goelet were Lady Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. Richard T.

Wilson.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbiltis guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman and Miss Grace Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies and Myron T. Herrick were with the Princess Aymon de Faucigny Lucinge.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews were the Hon. and Mrs. Alfred Anson and Mrs. Edward M. House.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr.'s

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr.'s guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Dows and Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Gray. The Mexican Ambassador, Henry P. Fletcher and Mrs. Fletcher, were with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Borden. Mrs. W. Delano Adams was with Mrs.

Harry Payne Whitney.
Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s guests were Mr. and Mrs. James W.
Gerard, and Mr. and Mes. John Garrett. With Reginald C. Vanderbilt were Mr. and Mrs. Gustav S. J. Whiteand Mrs. Charles Dillingham.

Lord and Lady Dansany were with

Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn.
With Mrs. F. W. Whitridge were Mrs.
Cadwallader Jones and Miss Gandy. Mrs. John Sanford's guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin and Mrs.

Others in the Boxes.

Among others in the boxes were Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Maynard, Miss Frances Ives. Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James, Sir Charles and Lady Ross, Mrs. Stuyvesant Chandler and Lawrence

Atterbury.

Among others in the audience were
Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, Mrs. Francis Carolan, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Livingston Seaman, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Salmon, Mrs. Edward Lauterbach, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox, Mrs. George F. Shrady, Mrs. J. Archibald Murray, Mrs. Charles A. Childs, Mrs. William Jay, Mrs. Ernest selin, William A. Clark, Dr. Reginald H. Sayre, Robert Underwood Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Hunt, Arthur Schermerhorn, Mrs. Austin Gray, Ash-bel W. Barney, Major G. Creighton Webb, S. Montgomery Roosevelt and R.

Webb, S. Montgomery Roosevelt and R. Thornton Wilson,
Also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilmerding Payne, Mrs. John C. Wilmerding, Mrs. Edward M. Breitung, Frank Pollock, Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Guggenheim, Commander and Mrs. Allen Josephthal, Mrs. Grenville Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Wassen, Mrs. L. Brown. George Henry Warren, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Miss Amy Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harkness Flagler, Miss Mary Harkness Flagler, Mrs. Wesley Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Victor Lorchan, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hirst, Mr. and Mrs. W. Storrs Wells, Mrs. Arthur Murray Dodge, Miss Florence Rhett, M: and Mrs. George A. Kessler, Mrs. Bayard Cutting, Mrs. Cabot Ward and Maurice Roche.

APOLOGY TO GRAVES HAS NOT BEEN MADE

Americans in Siberia Say Rozanoff Sent No Reply.

Rozanoff, the Russian commander in the Far East, has not apologized for the arrest and flogging of an American 18,000,000 American citizens, but row soldier at Iman on September 4, accord-upon row of soldiers fresh from the war. Ing to the American Army authorities There were twenty-seven ex-service men here. The American command asserts of the Seventy-seventh Division. Among it knows nothing of the apology, which, these were Private Abraham Kretoshin-according to press reports from the sky, the chap who got the message United States, Ambassador Bakhmeten in Washington said that Gen. Rozanoff commanding the American forces in Siberia, for the Iman incident, involv-ing the arrest by Cossacks of an Ameri> flogging of the latter.

>
> The American command, it is stated has not received any official reply from Gen. Rozanoff since Gen. Graves de-manded the apology, although the Rus-sian General informally notified the Answering Ger an explanation of the the incident, Japanese headquarters re with the latter should hostlittles develop. The Japanese General Staff issued a denial of this at Tokio on October 2. asserting it was absolutely untrue that the Japanese had threatened to back the Cossacks.)

Quota to Be Oversubscribed.

The real estate men who are cam-

VLADIVOSTOK, Oct. 18 (delayed) .- Ger can officer and enlisted man and the a's demand for plied that the Japanese major involved stated that the American major had misrepresented the facts. (The original reports of the incident stated that a Japanese major interceded for the Cos-sacks and said the Japanese would side paigning for the Actors' National Memorial Day Fund announced at a luncheon given by Bryan L. Kennelly at the Bankers' Club yesterday that their mittee in preparing the affair.

In a corridor of the Waldorf, while the royal party was starting for the operahouse, twenty-five wounded soldiers from the Fox Hills Hospital waved crutches be set up at the Real Estate Exchange.

Chauffeurs' Outfits Special at

and Cap to Match With good fabrics

$89.50

scarcer than ever, there is but one road to economy in Motor Apparel. and that is Quality. In this Outlit. of fine dark gray all-wool whipcord, we offer, considering conditions, an outfit which is remarkable for both quality and value—complete at $89.50 or

Coat $50.00 Cap $3.00

Other Outfits from $98.50 to $200

Brill Brothers BROADWAY AT 49th STREET and cames. The King stopped to say a few words to them. The party left the hotel through a lane formed by two dozen traffic policemen, known as "Mayor Hylan's honor squad."

ON 700 MILE PRON" ON 700 MILE FRONT

> On the Whole He Is Making Progress Against Bolshevik Forces.

VOLUNTEERS ARE AIDING

Don Army Advances 50 Miles but Reds Concentrate at Railway Junctions.

LONDON, Oct. 25 .- Heavy fighting going on along General Denikine's entire front. The fighting extends for 700 miles from Tsaritzyn to Kiev. The chief of the British military mission with General Denikine reports under yesterday's date that the battle so far is go ing successfully for the anti-Bolshevik "It appears," says a report to the British War Office, "that the Red armies, in a vehement attempt to restore the morale of the retreating troops, were oncentrated on narrow fronts against important cities and junctions. They scored successes in the capture of Veronezh and Orel, but the occupation of these two places falled altogether to stem the general progress of Denikine... "Between Tearitzyn and Vercnezh the Don army has advanced from 40 to 55 miles on a front of 12 miles during the past few days, taking many prisoner cow, was captured Thursday; volunteers attacking Orel have reached the south is going on at the present time.

"Further west volunteers are concen trating for an attack."

TROTZKY REPORTS ANTI-REDS REPULSED Petrograd's Danger Is Lessened, but Not Yet Ended.

London, Oct. 24 (delayed). — Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik Minister of War and Marine of Russia, in describing the Soviet counteroffensive and capture of Pavlovsk, south of Petrograd, and the repulse of anti-Bolshevik forces in the Pskov sector, says: "The danger hanging over Petrograd has been driven back but not yet definitely removed," accord-ing to a wireless despatch received here from Moscow. Rallying under the command of Trotz-ky, troops of the Russian Soviet govern-ment have savagely attacked the lines of the Russian Northwestern army and against Petrograd, according to reports aching this city. Tobolsk, western Siberia, is said to have been captured from the Kolchak army by the Bolsheviki. This report, if confirmed, would indicate an advance of confirmed, would indicate an advance or the Soviet army in that sector, as last reports showed them quite a distance to the westward of Tobolsk. REDS FIGHT AT BAY;

TROTZKY RUNS AWAY Bolshevik Minister's Staff Taken as He Flees.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 25 .- The Bolsheviki re making a strong stand at Tsarskoye-Selo, which, according to advices received here, the White troops have outflanked. A despatch from Copenhagen says the entire staff of Leon Trotzky, Bolshevik Minister of War and Marine of Russia has been captured at Tsarskoye-Selo according to a Reval despatch to the National Tidende a railroad car and later

The left flank of Gen. Yudenitch's army is reported to be under fire from the Bolshevik battleship Poltava, which

A despatch from Archangel says the North Russian Government in a com-munique issued to-day claims the re-pulse of a Bolshevik attempt to capture losses, including a Bolshevik vessel. The Bolsheviki were driven thirty-three miles from the town of Onesa and several villege REPARATION TERM. lages were captured. The North Russian troops, according to the communication also took the important railroad junction of Plessetskala, with an armored tra of Plessetskaia, with an armored train and prisoners and guns.

The Archangel newspapers regard the capture of Plessetskaia as an important success and rejoice at the unaided achievements of the northern army. They declare the position of the army is better since the departure or the Allies, who, they say, underestimated the North Russian strength.

TROTZKY SHRIEKS AT BRITISH DRIVE

Declares English Working Classes Will Overthrow Rulers

By the Associated Press LONDON, Oct. 25 .- A Moscow wireles message contains a proclamation by Leon Trotzky, the Russian Bolshevik War Minister, on the subject of England's participation in the anti-Bolshevik operations. It is addressed to the "Red Warriors," and says in part:

"On il front you are meeting with the hostile schemes of England; on every front you find British guns and material and troops dressed in English clothing. Women and children in Archangel and Astrakhan are being killed and muti-lated by English filers; English ships are bombarding the coasts; English gold sowing corruption.
"Soldiers, commissioners,

More than once your hearts have over-flowed with hatred against the preda-tory, deceptive, bloody, false faced Eng-But never forget there are two Englands! Beside the England of lucre violence, corruption and bloodthirstiness there exists an England of mental diarity. The base dishonest England of the stock exchange is against us; England's toiling masses are with us.
"We firmly believe that England will rise before long and put a straitjacket. on the criminals who are directing the

GERMAN-RUSSIAN TRADE PACT LIKELY

Berlin Newspaper Says ar Agreement Is Pending.

BERLIN, Oct. 24 (delayed) .- The Vot eische Zeitung learns from reliable sources that a trade agreement will probably be reached soon between Germany and Russia. "Since the German Polish economic agreement has been signed," says the newspaper, "it is probspecial arrangements made whereby Germany's prospective trade with Russia

The Polish-German economic agree ment, announcement of the signing of which was made Friday, provides for the exchange between Germany and Po-

SEDITIOUS PARSON LOSES CITIZENSHIP German Lutheran Was Par-

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 25 .- The Rev. Theodore Buessel, formerly a German Lutheran clergyman in Bristol, has lost his American citizenship. Judge Edwin L. Garvin of the United States court liance. has issued a decree cancelling his certificate of citizenship.

doned by President.

Buessel was convicted in the Federa court here in July, 1918, of violation of the espionage act. Several witnesses testified to his seditious remarks. He was sent to the Atlanta Federal penitentiary for ten years, but was pardoned by the President last April. He appealed to the court for reinstatement in citizen-to a failroad car and later fleeing from the scene in an automobile.

His counsel in arguing the matter contended that Buessel did not have a army pursued the Minister and fired upon his car, but Trotzky succeeded in was not familiar with Federal court procedure. After imposition of sentence the Lutheran Synod suspended Buessel's license to preach.

the Bolshevik battleship Poitava, which is lying in the Neva River, inside of the limits of Petrograd, and shooting over the housetops.

Buessel was born in Germany. He came to this country in 1909 after completing his theological education, went to India in 1910, returned to the United A despatch from Archangel says the North Russian Government in a communique issued to-day claims the repuise of a Bolshevik attempt to capture Povienetz, on Lake Onega, with great to Andra in 1910, returned to the United States in 1911, visited Germany in May, 1914, and got back to this country on the last German liner to run the British blockade. He became an American citizen in 1916.

Balch. Price & Co.

FURRIERS

SPECIAL

Alaska Seal Coats Ranging Upwards From $475

(For a 30-inch Coat)

Pelts purchased from the Government early in the year at an advantageous figure, enable us to produce these coats at about the price of a good Hudson Seal (Seal-dyed Musquash) Coat.

> FULTON & SMITH STREETS BROOKLYN

REPARATION TERMS

Reply to Allies Is Generally Considered Moderate.

PARIS, Friday, Oct. 24.—Bulgarla's answer to the terms of peace presented her by the Allied and Associated Powers is moderate in tone and adheres us reservedly to the clauses concerning the League of Nations and labor. It so cepts the principle of the protection of minorities in Buigarla on condition the same measures are applied to other Balkan states.

On the other hand, the reply makes recervations regarding reparations, and protests especially against the total sun demanded of Bulgaria. It asks for the suppression of interest charges and requestes an extension of the third limb for payment. Regarding the military clauses, Bulgaria objects to the volum tary enlistment system, maintaining that conscription alone can produce sufficient forces to maintain order.

The longest part of the reply concern erritorial clauses and protests againg modifications of frontiers on grounds and, quoting masses of states ties, proposes notably a plebiacite in Thrace and its formation into an sptonomous state. The impression prevails in conference circles that the Allie are not likely to consent to tensive modification of the origina ply were assigned to various counts sions of the Supreme Council which will prepare the reports upon which the garians. These reports are to be read ithin a week.

The Council adopted instruction

the commission which is to conduct the plebiscite, in the district of Tescher which will determine whether this region is to go to Poland or Czechozlovskia.

The Council considered complaints against German activities in the plebplots against the toiling masses of Russcite regions in Schleswig and Up Silesia, instructing a commiss vestigate the Polish complaint that the Germans are holding municipal elections in Upper Silesia, although these elect were to take place only after i rival of the mission to organic plebiscite. It was reported that if troops had been dispatched to a in Schleswig within the zone to cupled by the Allied troops.

The Franck Government had The French Government has protest to Berlin complaining of the a tivity of agents in Alsace and Lorral incident to the conspiracy for a revolt those two provinces, according to the Strasbourg correspondent of the Pets Parisies, who claims to have receive his information from an authoritate Stephen Pichon, French Foreign Min inter, suggesting the organization of Hungarian police so that Rumanian troops may be withdrawn from Bulapest, according to the Eclar-Pants, Oct. 25.—A decree will be public revoking the order for the tion of the general commission Franco-American affairs. The comhave been cleared up.

Tokio, Monday, Oct. 20 -- Work ! been virtually completed by the committee of the Privy Council which was appointed to examine the page trait, and it is expected a report will be submitted at a full meeting of the Coununder the presidency of the Emper late this month.

It is understood that discussion

the treaty has chiefly turned all pected early in November.

ALTERATION

$10 MONTHLY UNTIL PAID Bench, Cover, 12 Player Rolls and Cartage Included

NEW UPRIGHT $350 INCLUDING Stad Mass forth 3 Used UPRIGHT $100

PIANOS Under 6 Used UPRIGHT $140 $5 Monthly Until Paid

PIANOS Under $10 Monthly Until Paid

VICTROLAS $22.50 and $32.50

PLAYER 40c Each

Take Your Girl to the Maroline Sunshine. For Parcel Post add to sandy

PIANOS TO RENT GOETZ & CO. 81-87 COURT STREET OPEN BROOKLYN

Used PLAYER $465